

2013 YOUNG BUILDER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Brian Szliter

Arteva Homes

Arteva Homes' Partner, Brian Szliter, is recognized as one of the most enterprising, technology-savvy and committed builders in the industry.

In 2009, Brian spearheaded a concept at a low point in the economy when Arteva created Michigan's first idea showhouse. Now in its fourth year, this annual event has redefined new home design and technology, which has attracted over 35,000 visitors.

Brian and his partner, Vito Terracciano, recently became the first luxury homebuilders in the nation to receive the coveted Star Diamond Award from the American Academy of Hospitality. Other recipients include The Donald Trump Organization, Mercedes-Benz and Delta Airlines.
